This 1970-71 version of the North Stars' Story is the fourth — and, the editors hope, the most informative and interesting — published by Minnesota's National Hockey League team.

Its purpose is two-fold:

1. To provide information so that members of the press, radio and television are able more easily to report the activities of the North Stars.

2. To provide that same information combined with interesting photos and photo layouts to the members of the public who purchase the North Stars' Story.

It is the sincere hope of the editors that both of these purposes have been fulfilled.

LOOKING AT 1970-71

Change Is in the Air

Though the North Stars finished fast to snare third place in the West during the 1969-70 National Hockey League season, change is in the air in this fourth year of the team's existence.

General Manager Wren Blair never has had a penchant for standing pat. He feels that you have to move swiftly to keep pace in this day and age in the NHL.

Move he did. In the span of less than a month last spring the North Stars not only acquired four blue-chip players, but also made room at the top for a new coach in Jack Gordon, one of the most respected men in the sport.

Blair feels that the signing of Gordon to a three-year contract is one of the truly important moves made by the North Stars. It brings one of the most sought-after men in hockey behind the Minnesota bench and it allows Blair to devote all his time to his role as general manager.

The four new talented additions to the roster — all acquired in a series of deals before and during the NHL draft — are defenseman Ted Harris, right winger Bobby Rousseau and center Jude Drouin, all from Montreal, and left winger Murray Oliver, from Toronto. All should shore up specific holes in the Minnesota scheme of attack and defense.

The new faces don't tell the whole story.

The highest scoring line in the West — and second in the NHL — returns in the persons of left winger J. P. Parise, center Tommy Williams and right winger Bill Goldsworthy.

Minnesota boasts its greatest depth in goal where Gump Worsley and Cesare Maniago man the ramparts.

Defense? Harris is bound to help. Another year of experience is worth plenty to youngsters Barry Gibbs and Tom Reid. Young Dick Redmond looks promising.

Improvement seems certain. But it is necessary. Now that Chicago is in the West Division, only the fittest teams will survive when playoff time arrives.

WALTER BUSH, JR.
President

Hockey has played a major role in the life of Walter Bush, Jr., since the 1930s when the 41-year-old president of the North Stars spent his youth skating on the lakes and ponds of his native Minneapolis. That youthful pursuit of hockey led by stages — including degrees from Dartmouth and the University of Minnesota Law School — to the birth of the North Stars, an event brought about in large measure by his efforts. Bush sees the presidency of the club as an active position and is responsible for the day by day direction of the entire Minnesota organization. Under his guidance the club, merely a dream four short years ago, has become one of the most successful major league professional sports franchises in North America. The former United States Olympic hockey team manager (1964) has not relinquished his interest in amateur hockey and currently serves as secretary of the U.S. Olympic Committee's Hockey Section. An ardent golfer and skier, Bush and his wife, Mary, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of two sons and a daughter.

WREN BLAIR
General Manager

For the first time since the North Stars were born the team will start a season without Wren Blair holding the coaching reins. It's a measure of the maturity the 45-year-old hockey executive has brought to the team. Hired by Minnesota in 1966, Blair not only built and coached the team, but also constructed what is generally regarded as the No. 1 organization from top to bottom among the six 1967 expansion teams. At this stage of the team's development Blair feels that it is incumbent on him to devote all his time to his duties as general manager. The success that accompanied him to Minnesota is no surprise. Blair has spent nearly all his adult life in hockey's executive ranks and wherever he has gone, he's been a winner — gaining not only the Canadian and world amateur titles, but also the first contract signed by Bobby Orr. The native of Oshawa, Ont., makes his home in Edina. Blair, his wife, Elma, and their two children, a boy and a girl, spend their summers in Haliburton, Ont.

JACK GORDON
Coach

Jack Gordon, fondly known as Jackie throughout the world of hockey, steps this season into a new role — coach of a National League team. That hardly means that the 42-year-old native of Winnipeg is without experience in that field. The opposite is true. Gordon served 11 years as player-coach, coach and general manager at Cleveland where he played a part in four American League Calder Cup titles. That span of service at Cleveland, 17 years in all including his playing career, was interupted by a four-year stay in New York where he was the Rangers' assistant general manager. The soft-spoken, efficient Gordon was called by General Manager Wren Blair "one of the most sought-after men in hockey" when the North Stars hired him last June. A talented playmaking center, Gordon spent almost his entire playing career in hockey's high minors. He played 36 games for New York, but spent the balance of his time as a performer in the AHL. Gordon and his wife, Joyce, the parents of a boy and a girl, make their home in Edina.

Assistant to the General Manager

JOHN MARIUCCI
Special Assistant to the General Manager

The name John Mariucci means hockey to the State of Minnesota. It means a multitude of talents to the North Stars. Mariucci, one of the most distinguished players and coaches to emerge from this state, performs with equal distinction for the North Stars. John assists General Manager Wren Blair in all departments and has been called "invaluable to our organization" by the Minnesota headman. Hockey and the 54-year-old Minnesotan first came into contact at Eveleth on the state's Iron Range. The former University of Minnesota football and hockey player went on to five years in the NHL at Chicago, to 14 seasons as Gopher coach and to his present job in 1967.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

HAROLD COTTON
Director of Field Operations

Of all the moves made by the North Stars, one ranked among the highest by General Manager Wren Blair was the decision to hire Harold (Baldy) Cotton during the 1967-68 season. It has been Cotton's job to oversee the effort to acquire talent to build the Minnesota organization. The proof is in the pudding. The organization is strong from top to bottom. A former NHL star, Cotton was a long-time employee of the Boston organization where he signed such Minnesota stalwarts as Bill Goldsworthy and Barry Gibbs. The 67-year-old Cotton lives in Trent River, Ont.

TED O'CONNOR
Chief Scout

Ted O'Connor logged more air miles than the chief pilot at Northwest Airlines last season as he went about his work as the North Stars' chief scout. A few years ago, O'Connor was a stickout amateur and professional performer — also tapped by the Brooklyn Dodgers as a major league prospect in baseball. Now it is his job to range far and wide around North America in search of talent in the various classifications of the sport. The 39-year-old O'Connor makes his home in Osahawa, Ont.

GERALD BLAIR
Chief Eastern Canada Scout

Look at the roster of any National Hockey League team. You'll find that the majority of the players come from the spawning grounds of the Ontario Hockey Association. That's where Gerry Blair spends most of his time from October to April, keeping a sharp eye on the best young hockey talent in the world. The 34-year-old Blair also is available for other scouting assignments, but his biggest responsibility is to see that the North Stars are perfectly prepared for the Amateur Draft each June. Blair's home base is Oshawa, Ont.

THE CLEVELAND ORGANIZATION

NICK MILETI
Barons' President

Nick J. Mileti, a native son of Cleveland, has made an indelible impression in the field of sports during a span of rapid-fire activity over the past two years. He became owner and president of the Cleveland Barons in September of 1968, then in February of 1970 succeeded in obtaining a National Basketball Association franchise fore Cleveland. A graduate of Bowling Green State University and of the Ohio State University Law School, Mileti is an nationally-recognized expert in the field of senior citizen housing and heads his own firm, Senior Consultants, Inc. The Barons' owner, his wife, Gretchen and their son live in the Cleveland suburb of Fairview Park.

JOHN MUCKLER
Barons' General Manager

John Muckler comes to Cleveland fresh from a successful season at Waterloo, Iowa, where his Stars came within a single point of winning the Central League title. Championships are nothing new to the young (36 year old) hockey executive. His Long Island teams won both the regular-season and playoff titles in the Eastern League. Muckler has managed and coached in the National, Central and Eastern leagues. During the last three seasons he has managed and coached at Memphis, coached at Minnesota and managed at Waterloo. Muckler and his family make their home in Cleveland.

PARKER MACDONALD
Barons' Coach

The first full season Parker MacDonald spent as coach of a professional hockey team established the 37-year-old veteran of 15 years in the National League as one of the bright young minds in the business. MacDonald masterminded the Iowa Stars within one point of the Central League title and took his club to the Adams Cup playoff final. MacDonald ended his long NHL career when he was named Memphis playing coach midway through the 1968-69 season, then led Iowa from the bench last year. He and his wife Brenda live in Edina in the off-season.

BOB BARLOW

Height: 5'10" — Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 35 (June 17, 1935)
Born: Hamilton, Ont.
Home: Victoria, B.C.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Bob Barlow scored a goal on the very first shot he took in the National Hockey League. That goal, just a few minutes into Minnesota's opening game last season, was in a sense symbolic of the season for Bob Barlow. The oldest rookie in the league took advantage of his first real chance in the NHL and emerged as a North Stars regular. Barlow scored more than 40 goals three times in a prolific minor league career that extended back 11 years before Minnesota drafted him from Vancouver in June of 1969. He proved that he could maintain his touch in the NHL and finished sixth among North Stars' goalscorers. He's dangerous both in close and from the point. Not a swift skater, he nevertheless plays sound positional hockey . . . Barlow turned professional at Cleveland in 1958 when Jack Gordon was at the helm of the Barons . . . Personal high was 47 goals at Seattle in 1962-63 . . . His brother and father both were hockey players . . . Enjoys salmon fishing in the off-season . . . Barlow and his wife, Marilyn, are the parents of three girls, ages, 11, 10 and 1.

FRED BARRETT

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 20 (Jan. 26, 1950)
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Home: Ottawa, Ont.

Fred Barrett kept his cool during the North Stars' 1970 training camp. That display of self-possession by the quiet, capable 20-year-old from Toronto may have won him a National Hockey League job first crack out of the Junior A box. Barrett was by all odds the steadiest defenseman in camp, rather a surprise in view of the number of experienced rearguards on the roster. Playing his off side – he shoots left, but plays the right side – with Ted Harris, the youngster made an excellent impression on the Minnesota coaching staff, not only for his calm, but also for his skill at moving and passing the puck. The No. 2 choice of the North Stars in the 1970 Amateur Draft, Barrett also played on the right side when he performed as a junior for the Toronto Marlboros . . . A good scorer in junior hockey, he rang up eight goals and 20 assists in his last season with the Marlboros. . . Coached during his final junior season by Gus Bodnar, whose NHL rookie scoring record was broken by Danny Grant in 1968-69 . . . Barrett is not married.

LEO BOIVIN (BOY-vun)

Height: 5'7" — Weight: 185 lbs.
Age 38 (Aug. 2, 1939)
Born: Prescott, Ont.
Home: Prescott, Ont.

Leo Boivin has played more games (1,150) than any other North Star, more than all but five current NHL players, but this 18-year National Leaguer still is going all out at the age of 38. His hip check still upends unwary forwards. His experience and puck carrying ability make a real contribution to the Minnesota defense. His attitude could be copied to advantage by anyone in hockey . . . Came to Minnesota in a trade with Pittsburgh midway through the 1968-69 season . . . Voted most valuable defenseman by his teammates last season . . .

CHARLIE BURNS

Height: 5'11" – Weight: 170 lbs.
Age: 34 (Feb. 14, 1936)
Born: Detroit, Mich.
Home: Alameda, Calif.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Charlie Burns starts his 13th year as a professional hockey player this National League season. He ranks as one of the most versatile performers in the sport. The American-born (but Canadian-trained) Burns is one of the best, if not the very best penalty killers in the sport. He is a talented playmaker at center. He also can take a turn, if needed, at left wing. Charlie played even more roles last season when he started the year as a player, was named bench coach midway through the season, then took the ice again as playing coach during the final month of the campaign when the North Stars came from far back to win a playoff position . . . Burns was drafted by Minnesota from Pittsburgh in the 1969 Intra-League Draft . . . Wears a metal plate in his head as a result of skull fracture in 1954 that nearly cost him his life . . . Served as playing coach at San Francisco for a season and a half . . . Charlie and his wife, Carol, a native of Trinidad, are the parents of Karyn, 11 . . . He played for Minnesota General Manager Wren Blair in 1958 when Blair guided the Whitby Dunlops to the amateur world championship . . . Participated in the Stanley Cup playoffs for the first time last season.

JUDES DROUIN
(Jewd DREW-ehn)

Height: 5'9" — Weight: 160 lbs.
Age: 21 (Oct. 28, 1948)
Born: Mont-Louis, Que.
Home: Houston, Tex.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Judes Drouin was Super-Rook for Montreal's Voyageurs last season in the American Hockey League. The North Stars have high hopes that he can repeat the performance in the National Hockey League this season. It would be quite a repeat performance. The 21-year-old transplanted Texan won the AHL scoring championship with 106 points (37 goals, 69 assists), was named the league's rookie of the year and was selected as center on the AHL first all-star team. These credentials persuaded the North Stars to deal with Montreal for Drouin in advance of last June's draft meetings. Though he's not large and depends on skill rather than size, Drouin is not a shy flower. He recorded 117 minutes in penalties two years ago at Houston and 88 minutes while playing for the Voyageurs last winter . . . Only 13 years old when Claude Ruel persuaded him to join the Montreal organization, Drouin progressed rapidly and turned professional in 1967 when he still had a year of junior eligibility left. So at 21 he has three full pro seasons behind him, including 12 games for the Canadiens . . . He is the second oldest of a family of 10 children and has seven brothers and two sisters . . . Ranks Jean Beliveau as the greatest he's played with and Bobby Hull the best he's played against . . . Married last February to Deborah Batterson in Houston where they make their off-season home.

BARRY GIBBS

Height: 5'10" – Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 22 (Sept. 28, 1948)
Born: Lloydminster, Sask.
Home: Calgary, Alta.

When the time came for the North Stars to select the team's 1969-70 rookie of the year, the weight of the vote for the WTCN-TV trophy went to Barry Gibbs. The choice was logical. The young man from western Canada broke into the National Hockey League with a flourish. Despite a series of injuries derived in large measure from the punishing style Gibbie plays – he finished the season as a key man on the Minnesota defensive crew. He is, by all odds, the toughest performer in the North Stars' brief history and logged 182 penalty minutes – a team record – to prove the point. But toughness doesn't tell the complete story. Gibbs displayed the skill of a far more experienced player on the blue line . . . Certainly his biggest thrill came when his third-period shot from the red line beat Philadelphia, 1-0, last April 4 and put Minnesota in the Stanley Cup playoffs . . . Came to Minnesota from Boston in the same deal that brought Tom Williams to the North Stars prior to last season . . . Played junior hockey at Estevan, Sask. and in the Boston organization at Oklahoma City of the CHL . . . Comes from a family of seven, four boys and three girls . . . Barry and his wife, Sherron, are the parents of a boy, 1.

GILLES (Jeel) GILBERT (Jeel-BEAR)

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 21 (March 21, 1949)
Born: St. Esprit, Que.
Home: Limoilou, Que.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

One of the most pleasant surprises as the North Stars prepared for this 1970-71 National Hockey League season was the splendid performance of Gilles Gilbert. The slender young man – he's only 21 – from Quebec looked for a time as if he didn't plan to allow anyone to score, neither his teammates in practice nor the foe in pre-season games. Gilbert's No. 1 virtue is his speed of hand and foot. He's awfully quick, swifter perhaps than most of his colleagues in professional hockey. This is Gilbert's second season as a professional. He was the North Stars' third choice in the 1969 Amateur Draft and spent nearly all of last year polishing his skills at the North Stars' farm in Waterloo, Iowa... Comes by his talent honestly. His father was a Senior B goalie in Quebec ... Played his first game when he was six years old ... Wears a mask at all times ... Feels that his style is similar to that of the late Terry Sawchuk ... Gilbert is unmarried.

BILL (GOLDY) GOLDSWORTHY

Height: 6'0" — Weight: 193 lbs.
Age: 26 (Aug. 24, 1944)
Born: Kitchener, Ont.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.

Quick now. Who scored the most goals of any right wing in the National Hockey League last season? Gordie Howe? Wrong. Johnny McKenzie? Wrong again. The premier goalscorer among NHL right siders was big, handsome Bill Goldsworthy. Goldy nailed 36 goals, a Minnesota record, sixth best among all NHL players last season and more than the combined total that Bill had recorded in two full seasons and parts of three others in the league. He is quick to give linemates Tom Williams and J. P. Parise a large share of credit for the improvement, but General Manager Wren Blair thinks Goldsworthy's maturity deserves equal billing. He had threatened to break through to star status several times earlier in his career and finally made the jump last year . . . Voted most popular North Star by Minnesota followers . . . He and Cesare Maniago are the only two North Stars who remain of the team's original 20 expansion draft choices. Goldy was taken No. 9 from the Boston roster in June of 1967 . . . Led the team in game-winning goals (4), game-tieing goals (5), game-leading goals (10) and insurance goals (9) . . . Also the most accurate shooter with a 15.7 scoring percentage . . . Works at Blair's summer camp in the off-season . . . He and his wife, June, are the parents of a girl, 2.

DANNY GRANT

Height: 5'10" — Weight: 185 lbs.
Age: 24 (Feb. 21, 1946)
Born: Fredericton, N.B.
Home: Fredericton, N.B.

Danny Grant had a tough act to follow during the 1969-70 season. What do you do for an encore after you've been named winner of the Calder Trophy — when you were the first West Division performer to win an NHL regular-season award? If you're Danny Grant, you do very well, that's what. The holder of the NHL's all-time rookie scoring record (65 points) finished a few goals shy of his 1963-69 total of 34, but 29 goals is a man-size bunch, second best among the North Stars and third among all players in the West Division. Grant has been particularly effective with his cannon shot from the point on Minnesota power plays and also led the team with nine of all-important first goals, a figure bettered in the NHL by only Phil Esposito of Boston . . . Came to Minnesota as part of a June, 1968 trade with Montreal after spending all his earlier hockey career in the Canadiens' system . . . Spends part of the off-season working in hockey schools, but takes time for salmon and trout fishing and water skiing in his native New Brunswick . . . The most durable North Star in 1969-70, he was the only Minnesotan to play all 76 regular-season games . . . Danny and his wife, Linda, became the parents of a girl, their first child, last May.

TED HARRIS

Height: 6'2" – Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 34 (July 18, 1936)
Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Home: Winnipeg, Man.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

When the North Stars drafted Ted Harris last June as part of a complex arrangement with the Montreal Canadiens, stock in the Minnesota defense went up. General Manager Wren Blair said he expected the tall Winnipegger to serve as a balance wheel to what is by and large a young blueline corps. At Montreal Harris hit hard and worked hard and was one of the key men on a defense that moved the puck from its zone faster than any other in the NHL. The move that brought Harris to the North Stars will reunite him with Coach Jack Gordon, who helped the quiet-spoken blueliner to make the jump from the minors to the National League. Gordon coached Harris at Cleveland in 1963-64 when he won the Eddie Shore Award presented to the American League's top defenseman. Harris went up to Montreal the next season and stayed there for seven successive years . . . Named to the NHL second All-Star team in 1968-69 . . . Ted and his wife, Maureen, are the parents of Jim, 12, Kent, 7 and Sue, 6.

FRED (BUSTER) HARVEY

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 20 (Feb. 4, 1950)
Born: Fredericton, N.B.
Home: Fredericton, N.B.
Left Handed, Shoots Right

Buster Harvey, the North Stars' No. 1 choice in the 1970 Amateur Draft, is pegged as one of the best-looking young performers in North America by Minnesota's scouting staff. The youngster has the size and the skill – he led the Ontario Hockey Association Hamilton Red Wings in scoring – to make it in the National League in the near future. Buster scored 26 goals and 34 assists for 60 points at Hamilton last season. Though he performed the last two seasons at Hamilton, Harvey is one of a series of fine young players – Minnesota's Danny Grant is another – to emerge from Canada's Maritime provinces in the last few years. He played Peewee, Bantam and Midget hockey in Fredericton and Junior in Halifax, N.S., before going to the OHA . . . His father is a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police . . . Played eight years on defense before switching to right wing . . . Calls his draft by Minnesota his greatest hockey thrill . . . Played against the Russian National team last season . . . Buster is single.

JOEY JOHNSTON

Height: 5'10" – Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 21 (March 3, 1949)
Born: Peterborough, Ont.
Home: Peterborough, Ont.

It is hard to believe that Joey Johnston is starting his fourth professional season at the age of 21. At an age where many youngsters are just breaking into professional hockey, Johnston is a hard-bitten veteran. That experience will stand him in good stead this season as he bids for a regular position with the North Stars. Johnston, a left wing during his first two years as a pro, was moved to center last season and responded with a performance that prompted then-Iowa coach Parker MacDonald to label him as a good National League prospect. He's not only a good playmaker and goalscorer but also a tough customer. Johnston has averaged more than 100 minutes in penalties over the last three seasons, ringing up 115 minutes last year at Iowa where he spent the entire season . . . Oddly enough, Johnston's regular-season Central League scoring has been exactly the same the last two seasons – 20 goals, 37 assists, 57 points . . . He came to Minnesota as part of a multi-player deal with New York in June of 1968 . . . Played junior hockey on the same Peterborough team as the North Stars' Danny Grant . . . Johnston is married. His wife's name is Patricia.

DANNY LAWSON

Height: 5'11" – Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 22 (Oct. 30, 1947)
Born: Toronto, Ont.
Home: Mono Mills, Ont.

It appears that Danny Lawson has a solid shot at one of the right wing positions for the North Stars this season. The squarely-built youngster is two years out of junior ranks and now has the experience to go with his splendid physical talents. Certainly the swiftest skater in the Minnesota uniform and one of the fastest in the National League, Lawson also comes equipped with a highly-accurate shot. Two years ago he had the best shooting percentage among the North Stars. This past season he connected on 15.5 per cent of his attempts, only two-tenths of a percentage point behind team leader Bill Goldsworthy. Not the least of his advantages are his build and size, which enable him to shrug off most body checks . . . Came to the North Stars midway in the 1968-69 season in a trade with Detroit . . . Scored a break-away goal for Detroit on none other than Gump Worsley in his first NHL game . . . Scored 52 goals in his final junior season at Hamilton . . . Started last year at Iowa but was promoted to the North Stars less than halfway through the season . . . Danny and his wife, Huguette are the parents of Shane, 1.

CESARE MANIAGO (Mahn-ee-AH-go)

Height: 6'3" – Weight: 185 lbs.
Age: 31 (Jan. 13, 1939)
Born: Trail, B.C.
Home: North Burnaby, B.C.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Only two players remain of the original 20 North Stars taken in the June, 1967 Expansion Draft. One is right winger Bill Goldsworthy, the other is goalkeeper Cesare Maniago. Over those three seasons the big fellow from British Columbia has been the cornerstone of Minnesota's goaltending, playing 71 per cent of the schedule in 1967-68, 86 per cent in 1968-69 and 70 per cent last year. The records show that Maniago's at his best when he shares the goal with a capable partner. He has just that in Gump Worsley, leading Coach Jack Gordon to look ahead to a banner year from both goalies . . . Recorded the NHL's only shutout in the Stanley Cup playoffs last season . . . Was the very first North Star chosen in the Expansion Draft when Minnesota took him from New York . . . Logged three successive shutouts in 1967-68 and has nine in three seasons at Minnesota . . . Cesare and his wife, Mavis, are the parents of daughters Jody, 5, Carolyn, 3, and a baby girl born this past summer.

Age: 23 (June 19, 1947)
Born: London, Ont.
Home: London, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Walt McKechnie came to the North Stars' training camp this season with fire in his eye and 17 pounds missing from his tall frame. His attitude and condition were reflected in a training camp performance that earned the youngster a solid chance at a National League position. McKechnie has teetered on the verge of earning a regular spot during his first two seasons in the Minnesota organization, which acquired the 1967-69 Western League rookie of the year in a trade with Phoenix. He split last season between Minnesota and Iowa of the Central League. Not only a shifty performer at center, he also is an hard hitter and an improved skater...Worked in General Manager Wren Blair's hockey camp during the summer...Coached by the famed Turk Broda in junior play at London, Ont...McKechnie is married. His wife's name is Carol.

LOU NANNE (Nanny)

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 185 lbs.
Age: 29 (June 2, 1941)
Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.
Home: Edina, Minn.

Lou Nanne was the North Stars' No. 1 attacking defenseman last season. The former University of Minnesota All-American (1963) hopes to play just that role again this year. Nanne's 23 points – 3 goals and 20 assists – not only were high among Minnesota rearguards, but also placed him among the better scoring National Hockey League defensemen. A good puck carrier with a hard, accurate shot from the right point, Nanne is particularly valuable when the North Stars mount their power play. He also took a number of turns late last season at forward where his checking ability came to the fore . . . He is one of the few North Stars with previous experience under Coach Jack Gordon. Nanne played 10 games for Gordon at Cleveland in the 1968-69 season . . . Captain of the United States Olympic team at Grenoble in 1968 . . . Born in Canada, Nanne is a naturalized U.S. citizen . . . A business graduate of the University of Minnesota, he is employed in the off-season by a Twin Cities printing firm and serves as director of the North Stars' hockey school . . . He is the only defenseman ever to win the Western Collegiate Hockey Association scoring title – 44 points on 15 goals and 29 assists in 1962-63 . . . Lou and his wife, Francine, are the parents of a girl, 7, twin boys, 5 and another boy, 3.

MURRAY OLIVER

Height: 5'9" – Weight: 170
Age 32 (Nov. 14, 1937)
Born: Hamilton, Ont.
Home: Port Credit, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

During his 11 seasons and 756 games in the National Hockey League, Murray Oliver has displayed remarkable consistency. That's one of the reasons Minnesota General Manager Wren Blair snapped him up when offered a deal this past spring for Oliver by Toronto. During stretches in Detroit, Boston and Toronto, the durable forward has almost always been around the 20-goal mark and usually winds up the season with about 50 points. Add considerable penalty-killing skill and you come up with quite a hockey player. At Minnesota he is reunited with former Boston teammate Tommy Williams. Oliver, Williams and Johnny Bucyk made up one of the NHL's slickest lines during a span of three seasons that saw Oliver score 20 goals or better each year . . . Works as a mutual fund representative in the off-season . . . Took courses in business administration at Boston University's summer school . . . In 1958 he won the Tilson Trophy, awarded to the most valuable player in the Junior A Ontario Hockey Association . . . His nickname is Muzz . . . Ranks Gordie Howe and Bobby Orr as the two best he's ever played with or against . . . Murray and his wife, Helen, are the parents of Michael, 7, and Susan, 3

DANNY O'SHEA

Height: 6'1" – Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 25 (June 15, 1945)
Born: Ajax, Ont.
Home: Beaverton, Ont.
Left Handed, Shoots Left

His freshman and sophomore years in the National Hockey League behind him, Danny O'Shea merits inclusion in the ranks of the NHL's solid citizens this season. The tall, strong centerman recorded two seasons of productive play after he was signed out of Canadian Olympic ranks in 1968. Though he didn't log a towering point total in either season, O'Shea made his presence felt. It is more than coincidence that his wingers, Danny Grant and Claude Larose, finished high among West Division scorers each season. It also is significant that O'Shea was selected each season to the West Division team for the East-West All-Star team. His size and strength are assets that make him difficult to push around – both in front of the net and anywhere on the ice . . . O'Shea's younger brother, Kevin, played for San Diego's Western League team . . . Took an occasional turn at penalty skating last year and may see more action in that speciality this season . . . Performed for Canada in the 1968 Winter Olympics . . . Played junior hockey under Wren Blair at Oshawa, Ont. . . . Attended United College in Winnipeg, Man., during his days with Canada's National team . . . O'Shea is one of the single members on the Minnesota squad.

JEAN PAUL (J.P.) PARISE (pah-REE-see)

Height: 5'9" – Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 28 (Dec. 11, 1941)
Born: Smooth Rock Falls, Ont.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.

For several years the players and coaches in the National Hockey League knew that J. P. Parise was one of the best performers in sight. Last season the hockey world in general caught on to the ill-kept secret. Parise achieved recognition as one of the best in the business. He not only led the North Stars in scoring with a record 72 points, but also ranked as No. 8 scorer in the entire NHL and No. 3 in the West Division. In addition to his rise in the statistics, he maintained his reputation as one of the finest and strongest cornermen in the sport. He and linemates Tom Williams and Bill Goldsworthy formed the league's second-best scoring line last season with 204 points . . . Led the North Stars in tieing goals (9) and proximate goals (4) last year . . . Missed his first two games as a North Star last season after playing in every contest for a season and a half after he joined Minnesota as part of a seven-player trade with Rochester in December of 1967 . . . Picked on the West All-Star game for the NHL January East-West game . . . Employed in the North Stars' hockey school in the summer . . . J.P. and his wife, Margeret, are the parents of a girl, 4, and a boy, 1.

DICK REDMOND

Height: 5'11" – Weight: 170 lbs.
Age: 21 (Aug. 14, 1949)
Born: Kirkland Lake, Ont.
Home: Peterborough, Ont.

Dick Redmond stands a good chance of making the jump to the National Hockey League in this, his second year as a professional. That's the opinion of the North Stars' high command. The judgment is based on the results of the first professional season of this young man who was hailed as the finest attacking defenseman to emerge from junior hockey since Bobby Orr strode on the scene. Redmond spent most of the season at the North Stars' Iowa farm where, despite a painful hand injury that cost him a dozen games, he led all defensemen in the Minnesota organization with seven goals, 23 assists and 30 points – not to mention two more goals and eight assists in the playoffs. The feeling is that his ability to move the puck and his marksmanship from the point will add needed diversity to Minnesota's attack . . . Dick's father, Eddie, played for Wren Blair when the Minnesota general manager led the Whitby Dunlops. His brother, Mickey, plays forward and is a leading scorer for the Montreal Canadiens . . . Dick scored 33 goals and 45 assists in 50 games during his final junior year at Peterborough and was the North Stars' No. 1 choice in the 1969 Amateur Draft.

TOM REID

Height: 6'1" — Weight: 185 lbs.
Age: 24 (June 24, 1946)
Born: Fort Erie, Ont.
Home: Fort Erie, Ont.

Tom Reid performed the leading role in the North Stars' prime success story last year. He started the season at Minnesota's Central League farm club in Waterloo, Iowa. But nine games later he was called up to the North Stars where he not only remained for the balance of the season, but also was ranked as one of the team's most solid defenders by season's end. Reid is not the hardest hitter or best scorer among the North Stars' blueliners, but he combines the many qualities demanded by his position into a blend that results in sound, capable defensive play. If last season's play is any indication, he has a fine future in the National League . . . Reid played junior hockey in the Chicago organization and made the OHA All-Star team in his final season at St. Catherines. Came to Minnesota midway through the 1968-69 season at St. Catherines. Came to Minnesota midway through the 1968-69 season as part of a four-player deal with the Blackhawks . . . Scored his first National League goal last season . . . Works in Fort Erie's park system during the off-season . . . Reid was married during the off-season.

BOBBY ROUSSEAU (REW-so)

Height: 5'10" — Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 30 (July 26, 1940)
Born: Montreal, Que.
Home: St. Bruno, Que.

One of the National Hockey League's most spectacular offensive performers became a Minnesotan this past June when Montreal traded right winger Bobby Rousseau to the North Stars. The clever forward had performed in the Montreal system since he was signed by then-scout Sam Pollock at the tender age of 15. His record is nothing more or less than enviable. During nine seasons with the Canadiens, he was the picture of consistency, averaging 21.11 goals per year, ranging from a high of 30 to a low of 19. His best previous season was 1965-66 when he tied Chicago's Stan Mikita for second in NHL scoring and was named right wing on the second All-Star team. This season marks a new era for the 1960 Canadian Olympian, who is ranked by General Manager Wren Blair as one of the best potential offensive threats to wear a Minnesota sweater . . . An assistant golf professional during the off-season, he is ranked as one of the two or three best golfers in the NHL . . . Biggest thrills in hockey were winning the Stanley Cup (4 times) and scoring five goals in a game against Detroit at Montreal on Feb. 1, 1964 — he and St. Louis' Red Berenson are the only active NHLers ever to score more than 4 . . . He and his wife, Huguette are the parents of Richard, 8; Anne, 6, and Pierre, 2.

TOMMY WILLIAMS

Height: 5'11" – Weight 180 lbs.
Age 30 (April 17, 1940)
Born: Duluth, Minn.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.

Unfortunately for Tommy Williams, the National Hockey League doesn't award a trophy for comeback of the year. The man his teammates call the Bomber would have been an odds-on choice to win it. A severe knee injury and subsequent surgery cost Williams most of the 1968-69 season before Boston traded him to Minnesota. There were those who thought the injury had ended the career of the only native Minnesotan in the NHL. Far from it. Williams had his best year among eight in the big time. His determination to overcome the effects of the injury and the decision of then-coach Wren Blair to move him to center played the largest roles in his success story. Though he had played at left and right wings through most of his career, Blair recalled using him at center when he coached Williams at Kingston, Ont., and envisioned him as a perfect playmaker between wings J. P. Parise and Bill Goldsworthy. A 67-point season for Williams and the highest scoring line (204 points) in Minnesota history were the results . . . A gold medal winner on the U.S. Olympic team at Squaw Valley in 1960 . . . One of the swiftest skaters in the NHL . . . Originally persuaded to go into pro hockey by Blair, then a Boston employee . . . Tommy and his wife, Emmy, are the parents of five children, four boys aged 9, 7, 4 and 1 and a girl, 8.

Gump Worsley proved a point last season. There were those who thought his long and distingushed goalkeeping career was at an end. But no. Worsley was traded by Montreal to Minnesota and played a king-sized role in the North Stars' late-season surge to a playoff position.

NORTH STARS RADIO and TV TEAMS

HAL KELLY

JOE BOYLE

AL SHAVER

LARRY JAGOE

Once again WCCO-Radio (830) and WTCN-TV (Channel 11) will bring North Stars' hockey to the Upper Midwest in sound and in sight.

This is the fourth successive season that the two Twin Cities stations have handled the North Stars' broadcasts and telecasts.

WCCO-Radio will carry every Minnesota game, 39 at home and 39 on the road. WTCN-TV plans to televise 27 games on the road and 3 at home.

A brand-new team will handle Channel 11's telecasts. Veteran Toronto telecaster Hal Kelly is the play by play announcer. Twin Citian Joe Boyle will serve as color commentator.

WCCO-Radio's tested team of Al Shaver and Larry Jagoe returns for the fourth straight year. Shaver handles play by play and Jagoe provides color commentary and interviews.
